~~18.~~ Within ~~sixty~~ thirty (~~60~~ 30) business days of the final termination of this Action, including any and all appeals, ~~upon request of the Designating Party~~, Counsel for each Receiving Party must use commercially reasonable efforts to purge all ~~Confidential Information~~ Protected Material from all machine-readable media on which it resides and must either (a) return all ~~Confidential Information to the Party that produced the information~~ Protected Material to the appropriate Designating Party, including any copies, excerpts, and summaries of that information, or (b) destroy same. 22. ~~20.~~ Any Party may designate as “CONFIDENTIAL” or “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY” any Materials that were produced during the course of this litigation without such designation before the effective date of this Agreement, as follows:

- ~~(a)~~ Parties may designate such Materials by sending written notice of such
- (a) designation, accompanied by copies of the designated Materials bearing the appropriate legend of “CONFIDENTIAL” or “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY” to all other Parties. (b) ~~(b)~~ upon notice of designation pursuant to this paragraph, Parties shall also:

(i) make no disclosure of such ~~designated~~Protected Materials ~~or information contained therein~~ except as allowed under this Agreement; and (ii) take reasonable steps to notify any persons known to have possession of such ~~designated~~Protected Materials ~~or information contained therein~~ of the effect of such designation under this Agreement.

~~21.~~ 23. When a Party gives notice to another Party that certain inadvertently produced Material is subject to a claim of privilege or other protection, the obligations of the Parties are those set forth in Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(b)(5)(B). Pursuant to Federal Rule of Evidence 502(d) and (e), insofar as the Parties reach an agreement on the effect of disclosure of a communication or information covered by the attorney-client privilege or work product protection, the Parties may incorporate their agreement in a stipulated protective order submitted to the Court. The Parties further agree that:

(a) ~~(a)~~ The inadvertent production by a Party of Material subject to the ~~attorney-client~~attorney-client privilege, work-product protection, or any other applicable privilege or protection, despite the Party's reasonable efforts to prescreen such Material prior to production, will not waive the applicable privilege and/or protection if a request for return of such inadvertently produced Material is made promptly after the producing Party learns of its inadvertent production.

~~(b)~~ Upon a request from any Party who has inadvertently produced Material that it believes is privileged and/or protected, each ~~other~~ Receiving Party shall immediately return such Material and all copies to the requesting

(b) Party, except for any pages containing privileged markings by the Receiving Party which shall instead be destroyed and certified as such by the Receiving Party to the requesting Party.

The Court shall have continuing jurisdiction over the Parties and recipients of ~~Confidential Information~~Protected Material for enforcement of the provisions of this Agreement.
